Ronald W. Eslick

VP, Sales Manager

Experience

Ron began working in the insurance industry with his father in 1984, then with Anthem as a sales representative working with brokers. In 1989, he joined Acordia where he focused on voluntary benefits and association plans.

In 1998, Ron was recruited by USI for his expertise in voluntary and group benefits. From there, he was promoted to management. He is currently responsible for sales management in the Ohio region. Ron loves teaching and his passion is helping people grow and watching them succeed. He believes that people and leadership are what set USI apart in the industry.

Ron was honored as USI's "Sales Manager of the Year" in 2003. His region received the USI Pinnacle Award in 2002, 2004 and 2006 for the fastest growing and most profitable region.

Ron lives in Deerfield Township with his wife Michelle and their three children.

Education

Ron received his BA degree in Psychology from Judson University.
